PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

R.W. Smith

Thank you to everyone who joined us at our April membership meeting at Pappasitos! We appreciate you hanging in there as the neighboring room became so loud. We have worked with the venue and they assure us we will have the entire space to ourselves for the next meeting in September.

Also, we wish to thank UTA's ASCE Student Chapter for allowing us to present at their April 4th meeting. President-Elect, Stephen Grelle, PE, and Travis Sellers did an outstanding job of providing information on ICRI and giving examples of the types of projects our organization is involved with on a day-to-day basis. The Chapter also presented Dr. Williams with our annual contribution to the Civil Engineering Department's Student Scholarship Fund.

I am excited about our next event which is the 4th Annual Sporting Clay Classic on June 15th at the Dallas Gun Club. Don't miss out on the opportunity to host an exhibit at the lunch following the shoot! The first 10 exhibitors to register will be given an opportunity to make a brief presentation to the group. This should be our largest Sporting Clay Classic to date, so make sure you get signed up soon!

The Special Events Committee is looking into a Summer Social event for the Chapter. It may be as simple as a Happy Hour, or possibly a bowling event. If you have a preference or other ideas, please contact me or Clay Broyles (cbroyles@euclidchemical.com).

Sincerely,

R.W. Smith

17TH ANNUAL GOLF CLASSIC

The North Texas Chapter is proud to announce that our 17th Annual Golf Classic will be held on Friday, October 5, 2018. More information, including a registration form will be distributed at a later date. Mark your calendars and start fine tuning your swing now for what is sure to be a great day on the links!

NTX GOES TO COLLEGE

The North Texas Chapter held its annual joint meeting with the ACSE Student Chapter at the University of Texas at Arlington on April 4th. Several Chapter members made their way to the UTA campus to hear Stephen Grelle, PE, with WJE and Travis Sellers with Phoenix I Restoration provide an overview of ICRI, including the technical guidelines, guide specifications, and both certification programs. Stephen then described the various mechanisms that cause deterioration in concrete, with corrosion of embedded reinforcing steel topping the list. Travis presented two case studies of projects his company has completed – a tiltwall panel repair and the repair of a severely damage pier supporting a main girder in a parking structure. Stephen also provided a case study on the repair of an impacted, prestressed double tee stem in a parking garage.

After the presentation, Chapter members presented Dr. James Williams with a donation to Civil Engineering Departments scholarship fund in the amount of $2,000.00 – double the amount the Chapter committed to several years ago.

APRIL MEETING RECAP

CHEMICAL GROUT—STATE OF THE ART

The North Texas Chapter welcomed long-time “chemical grout guru”, John Ziebell from Texas Protective Coating Consultants, Inc. to their April meeting held at Pappasito’s Mexican Cantina in Dallas on April 5th. A chemical engineering graduate from the University of Texas, John has 34 years of experience in the chemical grout industry, and has been assisting ICRI’s Coatings and Waterproofing Committee to revise Guideline 340.1. John provided a brief history of chemical grouts, described the types of grouts commonly used today, listed the features and benefits of each type, and provided typical installation techniques and equipment. Anyone doing, or interested in doing, chemical grout injection work knows they can call John at any time for expert advice!

Chapter President, RW Smith, presented Past President, Julie Bolding, PE, with a plaque recognizing her for her service as 2017 NTX Chapter President. In turn, Julie presented RW with his official Chapter President’s pen for 2018.

Dear Ms. Bolding:

Thank you for your recent gift to the Civil Engineering Excellence Fund. Your gift to UT Arlington provides the foundation of support that is invaluable to our students. Much of the current and future success of these students can be attributed to the generosity of people like you who share their time, talent, and treasure. Thank you for your trust.

The University's enrollment is up by almost 1,000 students over Spring 2017. Graduate enrollment has increased 4 percent in the last year, with 12,838 students now pursuing a master's or doctoral degree at UTA. UTA's unique, cutting-edge online programs add to the number of students enrolled, with the total population in the last academic year exceeding 58,000. This year the total is expected to exceed 60,000.

Through your commitment to the College of Engineering, you are ensuring that UT Arlington remains a leading, student-centered public institution of increasing preeminence, and for that we are all very grateful. Thank you, again for your support.
